

Sales Supporter at Maacks

Do you want to be part of a company that drives sustainable and innovative waste management solutions? At Maacks, we are looking for a detail-oriented and dedicated Sales Supporter to strengthen our sales department. You will assist in marketing activities, manage customer relations, and support an efficient sales process across markets in Denmark, Germany, and other international regions.

Responsibilities:

- Provide comprehensive administrative support to the sales department, including handling customer inquiries and ensuring follow-up on offers
- Prepare, update, and maintain the quality of sales and marketing materials
- Assist in planning, coordinating, and executing campaigns, trade fairs, and customer events
- Ensure the accurate maintenance of customer databases and the correct use of CRM systems
- Organize internal and external meetings, including preparing detailed presentations and sales documents
- Collaborate with other departments to optimize sales processes and deliver a seamless customer experience

We expect that you:

- Have a commercial education and solid experience in sales support, customer service, or marketing, preferably within the environmental or waste management sector
- Possess excellent language skills, focusing on English, both written and spoken
- Are structured, detail-oriented, and capable of managing multiple tasks efficiently
- Have strong experience with the Microsoft Office suite and preferably knowledge of advanced CRM systems
- Are proactive, service-minded, and have excellent collaboration skills
- Hold a valid driver's license

We offer:

- A diverse position in a company dedicated to sustainability, innovation, and international growth
- Opportunities for professional and personal development in a dynamic work environment
- Flexible working hours and a competitive salary package
- A committed and interdisciplinary team where collaboration and job satisfaction are highly valued
